

AIFC: Players, Coaches & Managers Code of Conduct

I agree to participate in AIFC INDOLEAGUE competitions in accordance with the Constitution and Rules & Regulations, Code(s) of Conduct (FA, FNSW and AIFC) and other operational directives from time to time by the Association. I also agree to participate in the AIFC in accordance with the Laws of the Game and display at all times behaviour that is not detrimental to myself, my opponents, my club, the Association or the game of football.

I acknowledge that nothing in the Rules and Regulations will prevent the AIFC from approving a course of action to meet unforeseeable circumstances not covered by the Rules and Regulations.

I acknowledge that football is conducted at venues hired from local councils and accept responsibility for any injury or illness arising from my participation in activities at such venues where AIFC fixtures are conducted. Further, upon participating in football activities at such venues, I release and discharge the AIFC, its employees and agents from any claim, suit, demand, expense or cost in respect of any injury or illness arising out of or in connection with my participation in football activities at such venues.

The Association's Constitution, Rules & Regulations, Penalties and Codes of Conduct, and various Policies are available for review on the INDOLEAGUE's website:

ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY:

By participating in INDOLEAGUE organized by AIFC Players, Coaches, Team Managers and Officials agreed the following:

The AIFC is adapting Zero Tolerance policy towards violence, verbal and physical abuse towards officials, other players, or spectators.

Any form of violence is not tolerated in our game. Additionally, bullying of match officials will not be countenanced.

Listed here within of our Zero Tolerance Policy, are the endorsed Rules of Association for your reference. Also available on the website are all AIFC penalties that apply to player indiscipline and the process for determining which penalties apply.

In summary the following will apply:

1. Should your team be involved in a violent incident that leads to the abandonment of the game the matter will come before the Disciplinary Committee. Should the Disciplinary Committee find your team guilty of participating in violence that led to the abandonment of a game, your team may be suspended and/or removed from the competition and the next year competition.
2. Should spectators associated with your team invade the pitch or cause any disturbance that leads to the abandonment of the game, a hearing will be conducted by the Disciplinary Committee. Should the Disciplinary Committee find that it was your spectators that caused the incident that led to the abandonment of the game, then your team may be suspended and/or removed from the competition and the next year competition.

The AIFC will not tolerate violence or improper conduct by players or spectators.
